

Winemaker Cedric Garreau	Region Loire Valley	Location Chanzeaux	Appellation(s) AOP Anjou Rouge, AOP Anjou Villages, Vin de France	Farming Certified Organic
---------------------------------------	-------------------------------	------------------------------	--	-------------------------------------

Vin de France Luluberlue

Garovin

Variety

100% Cabernet Sauvignon

Annual Production

1000 bottles

Vineyard Name

Les Deux Buissons
(Saint Lambert du Lattay)

Vine Age

Vines planted in 1977

Size

0.5 hectare

Terroir

Shale/loam

Vinification

3 weeks carbonic maceration

Elevage

Bottled with no SO2

Notes

This is hands down the best carbonic Cabernet Sauvignon from the Loire. In addition to being the only wine of it's kind, Luluberlue is a light red full of fresh berry flavors that tastes best slightly chilled. It's meant to be enjoyed young.

About

Cedric Garreau makes tiny amounts of exceptional Loire Valley natural wine in a renovated stone building across from his home at the edge of the vineyards. All of his vineyards are certified organic, and winemaking is precise, but with a laissez-faire attitude. With old fashioned equipment, and a traditional approach, Cedric is making some of the best wines in the Loire Valley.